SAN DIEGO REPERTORY THEATRE ANNOUNCES THE 26TH ANNUAL LIPINSKY FAMILY SAN DIEGO JEWISH ARTS FESTIVAL

The 2019 lineup includes Israel’s 3 Tenors, Soulfarm celebrating Bob Dylan, Jews and Blues, Perla Batalla’s Songs of Leonard Cohen, and the 10th Annual Women of Valor.

San Diego, CA (April 16, 2019) – San Diego Repertory Theatre is pleased to announce the lineup for the 26th Annual Lipinsky Family San Diego Jewish Arts Festival (JFEST), which brings another fantastic year of Jewish music, theatre and art to the community. This year’s festival will take place May 26 - July 11, 2019, and features a slate of 13 performances across multiple San Diego and North County venues celebrating San Diego’s diverse performing arts community. The venues include San Diego REP/Lyceum Theatres, Encinitas Library, Leichtag Commons, New Village Arts Theatre, and The Museum of Making Music, Carlsbad.

“The Festival is 26 and still growing! The music of this year’s festival will delight across cultures,” shared Festival Artistic Director Todd Salovey. “I think audiences will love our many original programs of theatre, dance and music exploring the Jewish experience in art.”

The festival kicks off on Sunday, May 26th, with the world premiere of San Diego Ballet’s Song of Songs. Bringing to life King Solomon’s timeless mystical love song, 22 dancers ignite the stage with rousing jazz and klezmer music to celebrate a poem beloved by people from all walks of life and beliefs.

Highlights of this year’s festival include A Community Unity Concert with Kol Esperanza an exciting young operatic pop-trio who perform a mix of Broadway hits, classical arias and inspirational Hebrew favorites. Soulfarm, led by Grammy Award-winner C Lanzbom and guitarist/lead singer Noah Solomon, salute the legendary Bob Dylan with covers of his most transcendent music with a Jewish twist of faith in Knockin’ On Dylan’s Door. Perla Batalla returns to The REP following last spring’s sold-out standing ovation triumph with a new selection of Leonard Cohen’s greatest songs in Perla Batalla Sings the Songs of Leonard Cohen. Plus, festival favorites Yale Strom & Hot Pstromi present an all-star concert celebration of the intersection of Jews and Blues with The Klezmer Summit: Blueish: Jews and the Blues, which includes special guests Tomcat Courtney (guitar), Sue Palmer (piano) and Robin Henkel (dobro guitar).

This year also celebrates the 10th Annual Women of Valor with music, stories and images of six women who have made a significant impact in San Diego. “Each of the 64 strong, committed, fearless and compassionate women we have featured over the years have inspired me to pursue a life of service and meaning,” said Festival Associate Producer Ali Viterbi. “Like the Lipinsky Family San Diego Jewish Arts festival itself, Women of Valor celebrates the diverse and vibrant Jewish community here in San Diego, and we’ve been honored to tell ten years of these inspiring women’s stories.”

The festival will also feature two staged readings: In Every Generation directed and written by Ali Viterbi, a mystical journey through continents, languages and generations of an Italian Jewish family and a nation’s stories; and Asimov’s Last Chapter, a science fiction docu-comedy by San Diego REP Playwright-in-Residence and Culture Clash co-founder, Herbert Siguenza.

Rounding out the festival is Russian klezmer virtuoso Alexander Gourevitch joined by Latin, Flamenco and Romany guitarist Sasha Kolpakov performing moving and joyous klezmer gems. To celebrate the upcoming Festival of First Fruits, Soulfarm leads a sunset concert overlooking the Pacific Ocean at The HIVE at Leichtag Commons with world-beat original and popular Jewish songs; and local teens unite to perform In the Room Where It Happens, a San Diego Jewish Teen Performance Showcase.

Finally, to close the festival, Yale Strom and Hot Pstromi return with a concert of music ranging from classical to folk to unique improvisations by accordion maestro Peter Stan, with the world premiere of The Klezmer Accordion.

Tickets for the 26th Annual Lipinsky Family San Diego Jewish Arts Festival are currently on sale and can be purchased in-person at the San Diego REP Box Office, by calling 619-544-1000, or online at sdrep.org.

$30 Orchestra Reserved; $20 Balcony

Bob Dylan’s most transcendent songs with a Jewish twist of faith. From Blowin’ in the Wind and Like a Rolling Stone through Forever Young and Simple Twist of Fate, Dylan’s legendary poetry has captured and created the spirit of our times. The songs of the 2016 Nobel Laureate for literature are performed through a Jewish lens as Noah Solomon and Grammy winner C Lanzbom of Jewish jam band Soulfarm cover Dylan’s classics with special guests including Yehuda Solomon of Moshav Band and singer Sam Glaser.

IN EVERY GENERATION
Written & Directed by Ali Viterbi
Thursday, June 6th @ 7:30 p.m. | In the Lyceum Space
$18 Reserved

One family. One holiday. Four millennia. The Levi-Katz family celebrates Passover again and again and again while times, locations and languages change. Over matzah ball soup and (vegan) brisket, the family contends with questions of race, religion and inter-generational trauma. The present echoes both the past and future as the family reenacts the famous exodus traditions asking, “Why is this night different?” and “Will we ever be free?” In Every Generation was named one of the top Jewish plays in 2019.

A COMMUNITY UNITY CONCERT WITH KOL ESPERANZA
Tuesday, June 11th @ 7:30 p.m. | On the Lyceum Stage
$100 VIP, $35 Orchestra, $25 Balcony

From Israel, in this community unity concert, these three young operatic pop-trio performs a mix of Broadway hits, classical arias and inspirational Hebrew favorites. Featuring Israeli Opera soloist, Nimrod Grinboim; Jerusalem Academy of Music graduate, Nadav Inbar; Soloist in the Israeli Air Force band, Omer Shaish; under the music direction of Tomer Adaddi, a multiple award-winning composer and producer. An exciting pop-trio that bridges generations the world over. "Am Yisrael Chai!"

PERLA BATALLA SINGS THE SONGS OF LEONARD COHEN
Monday, June 17th @ 7:30 p.m. | On the Lyceum Stage
$40 Orchestra Reserved, $30 Balcony

Following last spring's sold-out standing ovation triumph, Perla Batalla returns with a new selection of the greatest songs of Leonard Cohen. For years Perla toured the world with Leonard Cohen, sharing in his music, poetry and wisdom. From Suzanne through Hallelujah, this event thrills with the presence of two unparalleled artists.

“Onstage, offstage, digital or analog, I love Perla Batalla.” – Leonard Cohen

“In this show, there are times when I ask my audience to sing with me. I feel that the coming together of voices has the power to touch Leonard's spirit and his lifelong devotion to art and the mysteries of the human heart.” – Perla Batalla

KLEZMER SUMMIT: BLUEISH: JEWS AND THE BLUES
Monday, June 24 @ 7:30 p.m. | On the Lyceum Stage
Featuring Yale Strom & Hot Pstromi with special guests Tomcat Courtney (guitar), Sue Palmer (piano) and Robin Henkel (dobro guitar)
$28 Orchestra, $20 Balcony

An all-star concert celebration of the intersection of Jews and Blues.

Benny Goodman and Artie Shaw played alongside great black musicians like Teddy Wilson and Lionel Hampton. America's roots music born on the plantations came to Chicago after WW II where Jewish immigrants founded Chess Records, the go-to Blues label. Chicago’s Corky Siegel (harmonica), Harvey Mandel (guitar) and Michael Bloomfield (guitar) developed relationships with Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf, Junior Wells, etc. and helped spread the Blues worldwide. "Blueish: Jews and the Blues" looks at why Jews fell in love with African American Blues.
